

The Katy Days Festival

Heritage Crafts Exhibition 2018

Parsons, Kansas

Who: All those who have the ability to create handcrafted items made in the manner of days gone by.

What: A special invitation to you to exhibit and demonstrate your unique craft to the general public attending Katy Days.

When: Memorial Day Weekend, only on Saturday May the 26th, to take place from 10:00 in the morning until 5:00 in the afternoon.

Where: In the protected shade of the Heritage Crafts tents which are located at the north end of beautiful Forest Park, located in the Queen City of Parsons, Kansas, USA.

Why: In order to entertain and educate the present generation, by demonstrating the talents and skills of those who lived and worked during an earlier time in our history.

How: How much do we help? Katy Days provides a fifty dollar honorarium, plus 20 cents a mile round trip from your home*. You may also freely vend the crafts you produce.
(*maximum $50)
